Three Clarinets on Stage for our Opening Treat

We have a great season lined up, and a real treat for our first show featuring three stellar clarinet players. Our own Doug Graham who needs no introduction; Pete Neighbor who has graced our stage before from the Holy City of Charleston after coming over from England, and a welcome new visitor, Ron Hockett.

Ron's bio is incredible: too much to list but notably the Dukes of Dixieland, soloist with the US Marine Band, and Jim Cullum's Jazz Band that you may have heard on NPR. Really looking forward to hearing him in the mix with our amazing house band led by Dick Goodwin.

A short introduction to Ron can be found at the Riverwalk Jazz site:

Looking forward to the rest of the season and the return of the special Christmas show with guests from our gracious host, Heyward Street Methodist.
