Chuck Braun Jazz Trivia

When the band played "Tea for Two" Sunday, I was reminded of this story that you may want to include.

Premier classical pianist, Vlagimir Horowitz spent several months composing "Variations on Tea for Two," to be an encore piece. When they crossed paths, he played it for Art Tatum. Tatum then played several choruses of "tea for Two" in his over-the-top style. Horowitz askem how long it took to compose it, Taum answered, "How long is ... right now."
